

Consultants Forum of Illinois

Member of the Year Award (MOYA)

MOYA recognizes the member that best represents the “Spirit” of Consultants Forum. This individual has a high level of integrity, shares their experience with other members, actively participates in group activities, promotes business growth with other members, and is involved in recruiting new members.

The Member of the Year will be recognized for this accomplishment at the January Holiday Party in front of the members and our guests. Elements of this award include a framed certificate of accomplishment, lunches covered by the group for the calendar year, and annual dues covered for the next calendar year.

Qualifying Criteria

- Active member for the full calendar year
- Attend a minimum of 6 monthly meeting
- Dues are paid in full

All members meeting the qualifying criteria are eligible for nomination at the December meeting and will be listed on the nomination ballot prepared by the MOYA Committee. Self nominations are allowed. On the nominating ballot members will be prompted to consider the following when making their nominations . . .

- Involvement with the group
- Business value added to the group
- Referrals given
- Recruiting new members

The Ballot will be compiled by the Committee prior to the January meeting. This ballot will represent all members nominated by their peers.

The secret ballot vote will take place during the January meeting and the ballots collected by the MOYA committee. Immediately after the January meeting the MOYA Committee will tabulate the votes and report the outcome to the Executive Board. The winner of the award will be notified by the executive board so they know to attend the party and the dinner of one (1) guest will be covered by Consultants Forum.

FDR Clause

The current M.O.Y. is ineligible for the award. They will be eligible again next year.
